Grant will Back Kellegg. ington telegram to Cincinnati Commer The President recognizes but one duty with reference to Louisiana, and that is to sustain the action of the Returning Board, whatever that may be; and he will sustain it. The Board is the only authority, under the law, empowered to pass upon the returns; and its decision, from which there is no appeal, commands the support of all the power of the National Government.

The result in this State depends upon the votes of the five contested parishes of Oua chits, Morehouse, East Baton Rouge, West Feliciana, and East Feliciana. The eminent jurists from your State and other western and northern States now in this city have been engaged all day in investigating the law bearing upon the disputed polls in these parishes. It is understood they have come to these conclusions: That the Board of Returning Officers created by the State law are the sole judges of the law and the facts; that they are bound to examine into the question of intimidation and violence when alscribed by the law; that if they find intimi-dation and violence to have existed and dation and violence to have existed and purchased of best quality and make at manufacturers' prices. PURCELL, LADD & CO., Druggists. leged and complained of in the manner prebound to reject the vote at the poll where said violence and intimidation occurred; that their finding upon this point is judicial and conclusive, and is subject to revi sion neither by Congress nor the courts, and that upon their finding the State officers must issue their certificates to the presidential electors of the State.

Charles B. Farwell, of Illinois, is reported to have promised some stiffening in the shape of a long letter from General Logan, telling the Governor to make no concessions to the rebels or to dough-faced Republicans, and to keep the Returning Board as it is. Secretary Chandler also telegraphs Kellogg not to change the Board. Collector Casey telegraphs, "Stand firm, boys; the President is solid."

[Casey is Grant's brother-in-law.] Looking over the ground carefully, I am perfectly well satisfied that the Returning Board will give Hayes a majority of not less than 1,100, and their decision is final so far as the State is concerned. Congress and the Senate will worry with it next. H. V. REDFIELD.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

THE REFORMS RUSSIA WILL DEMAND. VIENNA, November 15.—The Political Correspondence publishes a letter from its St. Petersburgh correspondent which sum-marizes the reforms Russia intends to demand of the Porte as follows: The disarmament of the entire population of Bosnia, Herzegovina, and Bulgaria, without distinction of creed; the abolition of irregular troops; the transfer to Asia of the Circassians settled in Europe; the language of the country to be introduced in public offices and tribunals; a native Christian to be appointed Governor by the Porte in each province; and a permanent commission of supervisors composed of consuls of the Great Powers. The letter also mentions, as reforms to be demanded, those specified in the dispatch from Vienna, published in the Morning Times, a summary of which was telegraphed to the United States.

London, November 16 .- The Times's Paris correspondent telegraphs that it is reported that Austria contemplates a partial mobilization of her army. The Berlin special to the Daily News says there is reason to believe that Russia will call in next year a contingent of recruits, numbering 200,000, immediately, instead of waiting until April, the usual time. It is announced that the first military train of 16,000 men leaves St. Petersburgh for Kischenoff to-day. The Golos states that all the railway companies in Russia have been ordered to place their lines at the absolute disposal of the Gov-

THE ORDINANCE OF MOBILIZATION. LONDON, November 16 .- The Standard's Vienna special says: The force which Russia will mobilize in accordance with the recent ordinance numbers 195,292 infantry, 26,788 cavalry, and 624 rifled breech-loading cannon. The rifles are of the American Berdan pattern. Because of the state of the weather military men estimate that at least a month will be required before the above force can be concentrated on the

RUSSIA AND TURKEY ACTIVELY ARMING. LONDON, November 16 .- The Vienna corespondent of the Times says: Advices from the Russian frontier announce that freight traffic on the railway lines from the Polish frontier southward has been stopped, the roads being required for the transportation of military stores. Large hospitals are being established. All the physicians in South Russia have been invited to enter the army. Turkey is also preparing. THE MEETING OF THE CONFERENCE ASSURED. LONDON, November 16. - The Times says, editorially, we believe we may now accept it as certain that the meeting of the conference is assured, despite the warlike preparations of various Powers. We believe all the Powers desire peace. The Porte must be convinced that it it stubbornly refuses to give guarantees it will stand alone.

AN OUTBREAK IMPENDING IN POLAND. LONDON, November 16.—The Standard's Berlin dispatch says that intelligence from Warsaw indicates an impending Polish rising. The Government has posted placards in Warsaw prohibiting any gathering in the streets. * * * * * I think you will recollect that in my last I mentioned the fact that the excresence on my lip had proved to be an epithelial cancer. Several physicians had thus diagnozed shortly afterlis appearance; but I doubted. Meanwhile the parasite grew apace, and during the four years of its existence its caprices were many: it had become indurated and pedunculated; at times the sensation indicated the presence of capsicum, and at others it was cold and viscid. I resorted to caustles, the action of which were stubbornly resisted until I began to believe in cancer; and on the 25th of September last visited Dr. John McLeish, of New York, under whose treatment the cancer was removed without recourse to the knife and without pain. It is just four weeks ago since his treatment was commenced, and to-day I am free from cancer, my lipbeing entirely healed, leaving neither soreness or capped to the sold of the control of the co
